SPECIAL CABLES.

FROM THE HERALD'S LONDON CORRESPONDENTS.

ZANZIBAR.

BRITISH NAVAL REINFORCEMENTS.

In reply to the formal protest of Germany against the action of Great Britain in ignoring the claims of the sultan, Sir Khair al-Din, to the throne of Zanzibar, the British Government ordered the St. George, the flagship of Rear-Admiral Rawson on the Cape of Good Hope and West African station, to return to Zanzibar, and other reinforcements were directed to proceed there.

The despatch of these reinforcements has caused a great sensation at Zanzibar.

MADAGASCAR.

A GENERAL REVOLT.

Latest advices from Madagascar show that the situation in the island is causing much uneasiness. The revolt has become general.

THE UNITED STATES.

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION.

LONDON, Oct. 14. The upward movement in the grain markets in the United States is destroying Mr. Bryan's chances for the Presidency.

MUTINY ON A SPANISH CRUISER.

Forty gunners forming part of the crew of the Spanish cruiser Alfonso XIII. mutinied at Ferrol, and tried to seize one of the ship's boats. The mutiny was, however, suppressed.

THE PACIFIC CABLE CONFERENCE.

LONDON, Oct. 14.

Mr. Wilfrid Laurier, Q.C., Premier of the Dominion of Canada, and Sir Richard J. Cartwright, Minister of Trade and Commerce, are expected to arrive in London about the end of November. The postponed meeting of the Pacific Cable Conference will probably be further postponed till then.

A CHINESE ARSENAL.

China has entrusted to the French the work of rebuilding the arsenal at Fuchien, which was destroyed by the Japanese fleet during the Sino-Japanese war.

EDUCATION IN WESTERN AUSTRALIA.

LONDON, Oct. 13. Mr. Cyril Jackson has been appointed Inspector-General of Education for Western Australia, and will sail for Perth in the steamer Urmonston Grange.

CHILLED MEAT.

THE URMONSTON GRANGE'S SHIPMENT.

Forty quarters of Queensland chilled meat by the steamer Urmonston Grange have been landed. The meat arrived in sound condition, none being mouldy, but it is of wretched colour. Experts regard the shipment as a failure. It is believed the meat will be sold piecemeal.

LONDON WOOL SALES.

At the London wool sales to-day prices were firmer all round, with a better sale.

The following rates have been realised for the respective clips:—Hillsden, New Zealand, 64; Clonagh, 64; Lomah, 74; Wolford, 64; Albion, 64; Clonagh, 64; Clonagh, 64.

THE SECOND SERIES ON 9TH MARCH.

NEW ZEALAND.

AUCKLAND, Wednesday.

The Auckland Wool Exchange has been opened for business. The number of directors was fixed at seven, and the directors' remuneration at £400 each. The clause providing that no dividend should on any account be allowed by the bank was struck out. The clause empowering the directors to borrow money was also struck out.

TENDERS OPENED.

Tenders for the following works were opened to-day:—The tender for the construction of the new bridge over the River Waikato, at the junction of the river with the Waikato River, was opened at 10 a.m. The tender for the construction of the new bridge over the River Waikato, at the junction of the river with the Waikato River, was opened at 10 a.m.

SPECIAL CABLES.

FROM THE HERALD'S LONDON CORRESPONDENTS.

THE AGENTS-GENERAL.

DUTY ON DRIED FRUIT.

LONDON, Oct. 14.

A meeting of the Australian Agents-General in London, convened by Sir Saul Samuel at the instance of Mr. Thomas Playford, Agent-General for South Australia, was held yesterday to discuss the question as to the desirability of making application to the Home Government for the repeal of the duty on dried fruits. Mr. Playford pointed out that duty was paid on Californian dried fruits, though preserved fruits from California were allowed to come in free. It was generally agreed that the injustice to Australia alleged to exist in regard to the admission of dried fruits was unfounded.

IT WAS RESOLVED TO CABLE TO THE RESPECTIVE COLONIAL MINISTRIES ON THE SUBJECT BEFORE INTERVIEWING MR. CHAMBERLAIN, SECRETARY OF STATE FOR THE COLONIES.

On the motion of Sir Saul Samuel, the Agents-General resolved to meet monthly in order to discuss matters of common interest.

BRITISH AND FOREIGN MADE GOODS.

MR. CHAMBERLAIN'S CIRCULAR.

LONDON, Oct. 14.

In response to a circular from Mr. Chamberlain, the Secretary of State for the Colonies, the Victorian Government some time ago sent home a report upon the imports into Victoria from foreign countries, together with samples of some foreign-made goods which were exhibited at the London Chamber of Commerce.

THE COLONIAL MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

LONDON, Oct. 13.

At the Colonial Missionary Society's Ladies' Conference in London to-day a warm welcome was extended to Mrs. Bevan and Mrs. Bending, delegates from Australia.

VICTORIA.

THE MELBOURNE WOOL SEASON.

THE OPENING SALE.

MELBOURNE, Wednesday.

The opening sale of the Melbourne wool season was held to-day by Goldsbrough, Mort, and Co., who brought forward a catalogue of 2000 bales of wool. The sale was a success, and the prices were generally higher than in the previous season.

EUROPEAN SITUATION.

TURKEY AND THE POWERS.

AN ARMENIAN WARNING.

LONDON, Oct. 14.

The St. Petersburg journal, the Norvost, urges that Russia, Great Britain, and France should jointly coerce the Sultan to institute the promised reforms in the Ottoman Empire.

The Armenians who were thrown into prison for being concerned in the rioting when the Ottoman Imperial Bank was seized, and who were recently released, have sent a warning to the foreign embassies that further outrages are contemplated unless the prisoners of the Armenians be released. They declare that the intended outrages are of such a character as to make even their projects shudder.

IT IS GENERALLY CONSIDERED THAT A BREACH OF THE TREATY OF EUROPE IS CERTAIN TO FOLLOW SHOULD GREAT BRITAIN ACT ALONE IN REGARD TO TURKEY.

One or more of the Powers, it is believed, would attack Great Britain.

SOUTH AUSTRALIA.

THE TYNE TRAGEDY.

ADELAIDE, Wednesday.

The funeral of the Tyne tragedy victims took place to-day at Dunes to-day. The mother and five children were buried in one grave, and the husband and father, Joseph Thayer, were buried in another. The funeral was a very impressive one, and the services were conducted by the Rev. J. H. Thompson.

MEDELSSOHN'S "ST. PAUL."

Excepting only Bach's Passion music, Medelssohn's "St. Paul" may be reasonably accounted the most difficult work that chorals and orchestras can undertake. The work is a very large one, and the composer has written it in a very difficult style. The work is a very large one, and the composer has written it in a very difficult style.
